GRADUATE SUCCESS

- 70 graduates were selected to serve as judicial clerks in the 2010 – 2014 terms.

- Graduates have founded high profile companies such as NextCare Urgent Care, LegalForce RAPC Worldwide and True North Venture Partners.

- Over the past several years, graduates have served in high level government positions such as U.S. Department of Agriculture, Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Office of Civil Rights; Acting Director of U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement; and Chief Counsel U.S. Senate Committee on Indian Affairs.

- Over the past five years, 11 graduates have been hired by the various military Judge Advocate Corp programs.

- Two graduates are currently representing the State of Arizona in the House of Representatives.

- Over the past five years, 22 graduates have been hired by Native American Tribal Agencies and Courts and another graduate is the former Chief Counsel of the U.S. Senate Committee on Indian Affairs.

- Two 2013 graduates where selected for the prestigious U. S. Presidential Management Fellows program.

- Graduates make up almost 14% of the staff at Community Legal Services, Phoenix’s legal aid organization serving the poor.

- Each year, approximately one-third of the graduating class achieves pro bono distinction and almost two-thirds of each graduating class participates in pro bono activities while in law school.

- Over the past five years, 78 graduates (approximately 9% per year) made the decision to practice public interest law.

- Two US Ninth Circuit judges are College of Law graduates along with two Arizona Supreme Court Justices, four Arizona Court of Appeals Judges, two Arizona District Court judges, two Utah District Court judges and one Nevada District Court judge.

- President Obama recently nominated four College of Law graduates for the U.S. District Court, District of Arizona.

- With intensive support from the Career Strategy & Professional Development Mentoring Center, our graduates are highly successful in the local and national private practice markets.

- The Career Center Director of Employer Relations is nationally known for her expertise in the area of small firm employment and has co-authored Small Firms, Big Opportunity: How to Get Hired (and Succeed) in the Small Firm Market, published by Lawyer Avenue Press.